

Feeding Your Baby

Burping, Hiccups and Vomiting

What do I do if my baby is vomiting?

If your baby is vomiting:

- Sit baby forward and gently pat or rub their back
- Vomiting is forceful throwing up of large amounts of liquid.
- Frequent explosive vomiting (projectile) requires your baby to be seen by a health care provider.

Call your health care provider if your baby is unable to keep any fluids down, as this can lead to dehydration.